Slump in Cotton Industry

†1686. SHRI P.K. MAHESHWARI: Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a) whether the cotton industry of the country is reeling under constant slump;

(b) whether a steep decline has been registered in the year-wise production of silk cotton (narma) during the last 10 years;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) the steps being taken by Government to provide relief to the cotton ginning industry in the country;

THE MINISTER OF TEXTILES (SHRI SHANKERSINH VAGHELA): (a) The production and the consumption of cotton during 2002-03,2003-04 & 2004-05 (given below) show an increasing trend. The export of cotton textiles (cotton fibre, yarn & fabric) has also shown an increasing trend during the period 2001-02 to 2003-04. Therefore it would not be appropriate to say that the cotton industry is reeling under constant slump.
